

The Concrete Expo: Speakers

Thank you for registering for The Concrete Expo! This two-day event begins at 9:00 a.m. CST on Wednesday, January 20. If you're unable to make any of the sessions, don't worry — each will be available for on-demand viewing 24 hours after the event ends.

As the first in the volumetric industry to hold a virtual expo, we've put together a line-up of speakers aimed at reaching a wide range of areas and experience levels. Click here to view the full agenda.

Meet The Speakers

Keynote, Day 1: Matthew G. Whitaker

Mr. Whitaker was acting Attorney General of the United States under the Trump Administration. He previously served as Chief of Staff to Attorney General Jeff Sessions and U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Iowa by President George W. Bush from 2004 to 2009.

Keynote, Day 2: Ed Mortimer

As vice president of Transportation and Infrastructure at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Mortimer oversees the development and implementation of the Chamber's transportation infrastructure policy and represents the Chamber on Capitol Hill as well as before the administration and industry organizations.

Ken Simonson

Mr. Simonson has been the chief economist for the Associated General Contractors of America since 2001. With more than 40 years of experience analyzing, advocating, and communicating about economic and tax issues, he provides insight into the economy and what it implies for construction and related industries.

Scott Mueller

As Vice President of Marketing for the American Concrete Pavement Association, Mr. Mueller provides trend analysis and forecasting for ACPA, along with developing national program strategy.

Eric Ottinger

Mr. Ottinger is a manager in the Construction and Real Estate Advisory Services practice of Ernst & Young LLP with more than 12 years of experience in construction management, project management, and program management.

We look forward to you joining us for The Concrete Expo!
